OPEN MEETING POLICY

The Wallkill Public Library Board of Trustees is in conformance with the Open Meetings Law (Public Officers Law, Article 7, Section 100). All meetings of the Wallkill Public Library Board of Trustees are open to the public, except for “Executive Sessions” which may be called for reasons enumerated in the law.

Meetings are generally held on the first Monday of every month at 6:45 p.m. Notice of a change in the meeting date will be posted in the library and published in the Wallkill Valley Times at least one week prior, if possible.

Persons desiring to address the Board must sign in prior to the Board meeting stating their name, address, affiliation, and the topic they wish to address. The President may limit the time allowed for discussion at his/ her discretion.
